Library

Monday | 12:00 – 6:00 pm

Tuesday – Thursday | 12:00 – 6:30 pm

Friday | by appointment

The Edmond de Rothschild Library
Director: Marga Hirsch

The library is one of the most popular and valuable resources at PAS, and now it's better than ever. We've reorganized the books. Instead of the Dewey Decimal system that you know from school and public libraries, we are using the Elazar system, designed especially for Jewish libraries. The labels look the same, but now the collection is organized according to Jewish categories. Books hold Jewish knowledge, and now you can find it faster.

Go to pasyn.org/rothschildlibrary to search the catalog, or stop by in person. Enjoy fiction, biographies, poetry and short stories. Study Bible, theology, Jewish living, Israel, and more. Bring your kids to the great children's section, where they can borrow books or just hang out and play with puzzles and toys. When a librarian isn't in, follow the posted instructions to check out or return books.

Joseph Bau: A Man of His Time and Beyond

Through April

Joseph Bau recorded the human experience for more than seven decades, in stark, black and white images of the Holocaust; in colorful oils reflecting his life in Israel; and in art of the Hebrew letters. As a prisoner of the Nazis, Joseph Bau saved his own life by creating maps and documents for his captors, all the while fabricating documents that enabled others to escape. Beginning in 1950, Bau documented the experience of the early years of the State of Israel in art and in film. Called the "Disney of Israel," Joseph Bau created classic animation and titles for many of Israel's early films. His iconic advertising logos are recognized decades later.

Jewish Summer Camp Shabbat at PAS!

FROM THE CAMP COMMITTEE

On a freezing February 28, the PAS chapel was transformed into a warm, sunny, summer camp Shabbat. Decked out in their camp t-shirts, several learners who attend Jewish summer camp helped Rabbi Rudin lead the service for learners in Hey and Vav (Grades 5 & 6). They taught camp tunes and presented beautiful poetic readings.

The campers also shared their favorite parts of Shabbat at Jewish summer camp: “Shabbat services by the lake.” “Eating chicken soup.” “Eating brownies on every Shabbat.” “Being together with the entire camp dressed for Shabbat.” “Singing Shabbat songs in the dining hall.” “Having extra free time on Shabbat.”

The campers’ energy and enthusiasm about their Jewish summer homes was contagious.

Read Across America comes to the ECC

PAMELA B. SCHWARTZ, DIRECTOR OF THE PASECC

Monday, March 2 brought great excitement to the ECC as we celebrated Read Across America Day, which takes place every year on Dr. Seuss' birthday. Children and teachers came to school in pajamas. Our parent Tikkun Olam committee organized an initiative for each child to donate a book to donate to Project Cicero, an organization that brings children's literature to children in need. The children also delighted in bringing a favorite book to share with peers and teachers. In short, the day was all about BOOKS! We all came together in the big room to read stories and witnessed the magic that occurs when we all enjoy a good story.

The children loved coming to school in PJs and commented on how cozy and comfy they were all day. Some even tried to sneak PJs under their clothes the following day!

Reading to children is a treasure we share each day in the ECC. Teachers use stories as vehicles for teaching rich subject matters, and most of all, for building a love of reading. We invite you to come up to the 5th floor and view the photos documenting Read Across America Day in the ECC.
